

Employment Assistance Fund

JobAccess administers the Employment Assistance Fund (EAF), designed to help people with disability and mental health condition by providing financial assistance to purchase a range of work-related modifications and services.

Assistance is available for both people who are already working, and people who are about to start work.

The services the EAF can help reimburse include:

- the cost of modifications to the physical work environment
- modifications to work vehicles
- adaptive equipment for the workplace
- information and communication devices
- Auslan interpreting
- specialist services for employees with specific learning disorders and mental health conditions
- Disability Awareness Training
- Deafness Awareness Training
- Mental Health Awareness Training

To find out more about the EAF and the application process, visit the JobAccess website:
<https://www.jobaccess.gov.au/employment-assistance-fund-eaf>

