It's OK to talk about abuse and neglect

Contact National Disability Abuse and Neglect Hotline (The Hotline)

The Hotline is a free, independent and confidential service for reporting abuse and neglect of people with disability.

Anyone can contact the Hotline, including family members, friends, service providers or a person with disability.

The Hotline works with callers to find appropriate ways of dealing with reports of abuse and neglect of people with disability.

The Hotline is not a crisis service. In case of life-threatening situations, call 000 for attendance by Ambulance, Fire or Police services. If you think a crime has been committed or is being committed, contact your local police.
